LOCATION

Located just 15 miles north of the county seat, Bellingham, and only 5 miles south of the Canadian Border, the City of Lynden offers a unique opportunity to join a strong and growing community. While being the second largest city in Whatcom County, Lynden provides the perfect small-town feel which highlights the town's century-old Dutch and pioneer heritage.

COMMUNITY

Centered around a charming main drag, Lynden has transformed from Washington State's largest Dutch settlement to a lively and joyful city center. A more traditional "Americana" feel is shaped by their strong service industry and agricultural focus. Additionally, their tight-knit community is reflected in a unique selection of festivals and events. These include the Northwest Raspberry Festival and the Northwest Washington Fair, which bring in over 200,000 people every year.

NATURAL BEAUTY

Lynden's location provides easy access to a wealth of outdoor recreation. Nestled between Mount Baker and the San Juan Islands, the natural beauty of the area is highly attractive to visitors. Whatcom County ranks fifth in the state for tourist spending.
