Investment Summary

The Finem Team at Meybohm Commercial is proud to exclusively present this 15.02-acre tract of land for sale in Aiken, South Carolina.

Utilities are on site: City of Aiken's sewer line runs through the middle of the property, and the water line is at the street. Topography is rolling and the property has a low area in the center through which the sewer line runs. The property is currently zoned Industrial but could also be rezoned for multifamily or retail development, and with Aiken High School located across the street, a mix of retail and multifamily development could be ideal.

This is the northern half of the tract, which is bisected by Rutland Ave. The property has a power line easement running through the northeast border. Rutland Ave has a daily traffic count of 15,700 cars.

LOCATION SUMMARY

The property is located in Aiken, South Carolina, on Rutland Drive. Rutland Drive sees 15,700 cars per day and is part of the loop that runs around the City of Aiken, also known as University Parkway. This property is located near the Laurens Street intersection. This property is zoned for North Aiken Elementary, Schofield Middle, and Aiken High School. Nearby neighbors include Aiken High School, Yohe Plumbing, Diversified Supply, The Aiken Standard Newspaper, and SRP Federal Credit Union.

THE CSRA

Economic Overview

Augusta is a regional center of medicine, biotechnology, and cyber security. Augusta University, the state's only public health sciences graduate university, employs over 7,000 people. Along with University Hospital, the Medical District of Augusta employs over 25,000 people and has an economic impact of over $1.8 billion. Within the next few years, the city is expected to have rapid population growth of 10,000+ residents due to the announcement of the United States Army Cyber Command that will be located in Fort Gordon.

The city's three largest employers are Augusta University, the Savannah River Site (a Department of Energy nuclear facility), and the U.S. Army Cyber Center of Excellence at Fort Gordon, which oversees training for Cyber, Signal Corps, and Electronic Warfare. Other Companies with headquarters or distribution centers in the CSRA are but limited to, EZ-Go, Bridgestone, Tax Slayer, John Deere, Amazon, Kellogg's Kimberly Clark, Graphic Packaging International, and more.

Aiken, SC

Area Overview

Originally chartered in 1828, Aiken is a city of historic charm, with a vibrant downtown, and history of passion for all things equestrian. Located in Aiken County, South Carolina, in the Central Savannah River Area (CSRA) in close proximity to Augusta, GA, Aiken has long been a destination for those horse and golf lovers alike. This coupled with its general charm, have resulted in a city with great appeal as retirement location.

Industry Overview

As the county seat of Aiken County, per a 2015 estimate, Aiken has a population of approximately 30,604. Per a 2013 census, the greater county is the home to approximately 164,176 people. Area employers benefit directly from the proximity of Aiken Technical College, Piedmont Technical College, and the University of South Carolina at Aiken. When you consider the abundant workforce from the Aiken-Augusta, SC-GA Metropolitan Statistical area that includes over 575,000 people. Savannah River Site (SRS) is a nuclear site located in close proximity to Aiken that employs more than 10,000 people. With its first reactor having gone critical in 1953, the facility has continued to grow in capacity and in the number of people employed. Bridgestone has two separate plants in Aiken, employing nearly 1,800 people and Kimberly-Clark which employs 1,200, in addition to many smaller industrial operations employing thousands more.

CYBER CITY

U. S. Army Cyber Command Headquarters

U.S. Army Cyber Command (ARCYBER) is the Army headquarters beneath United States Cyber Command. The Army Cyber Command Headquarters located at Fort Gordon operates and defends Army networks and delivers cyberspace effects against adversaries to defend the nation. ARCYBER, led by Fort Gordon, conducts global operations 24/7 with approximately 16,500 Soldiers, civilian employees, and contractors worldwide. The Pentagon's 2013 announcement led to the relocation of the U.S. Army Cyber Command from Fort Meade in Maryland to Fort Gordon in Augusta. Fort Gordon is fast becoming a center for joint forces activities, training, and operations and is a huge employer in east Georgia. With a workforce of 31,155, much of the installation's annual economic impact of nearly $2.4 billion goes directly into area shops, real estate, banks, and other businesses.

Georgia Cyber Center

The Augusta Region has long been a hotbed for the tech- and cyber-related companies such as Unisys, ADP, and Raytheon. Now, Augusta is home to the US Cyber Command at Fort Gordon and the newly completed Georgia Cyber Center, a $100 million investment and the largest government cybersecurity facility in the United States. Located on the Nathan Deal Campus for Innovation, the center is a unique public/private partnership involving academia, state and federal government, law enforcement, the U.S. Army, and the private sector. Other cyber-focused businesses are paying attention and taking advantage of the expanding field by moving their headquarters and establishing branches in the Augusta Region. The $100 million Georgia Cyber Center, the single largest investment in a cybersecurity facility by a state government to date, is a unique public/private partnership involving academia, state and federal government, law enforcement, the U.S. Army and the private sector.
