- The North Loop is the fastest-growing neighborhood in Minneapolis, growing from 1,500 residents in 2000 to 5,760 in 2017 (3,337 households)... and continuing to increase rapidly!
- Median resident age 32, with 84% of residents between ages 18-64. Children 17+ years were in about 12% of these households. People over age 65 were in 4% of the neighborhood's households.
- Median household income was $104,832
- The Minneapolis Farmers Market, an institution since 1937, adds to the neighborhood vibrancy, and attracts people from across the Twin Cities.
- Rated best biking city by Bike Score, and #3 bicycling city by Bicycling Magazine.
- Home of Target Field. Target Field Station serves as a central, multi-modal transportation hub, serving the METRO Blue and Green lines and Northstar Commuter Rail. The adjacent public plaza and amphitheater is a community gathering spot and host to year-round special events.
