LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

Las Vegas, NV founded in 1905 and incorporated in 1911, is located in the southern part of the state. The city currently occupies a land area of 133.2 square miles and. The City of Las Vegas is the largest city in Nevada with a population of 663,618 as of July 1, 2024.

tropical CAF

Las Vegas' pioneering spirit, enterprising nature and can-do attitude are helping pave the road to economic recovery in Southern Nevada. Currently, gaming, tourism and educational instruction remain the leading areas of employment for Southern Nevadans. Las Vegas offers a market area of more than 51 million people within one day's drive. It is a convenient Western U.S. location near other key high-tech markets such as Denver, Los Angeles, Phoenix, Salt Lake City, San Diego and San Francisco.

It is home to Switch, the world's largest and most powerful data center and technology ecosystem. Switch clients include Cisco, Dell, and eBay, Fox, MGM, Pixar and Sony. Switch recently unveiled plans to invest $2 billion in new infrastructure that will bolster the state's growing tech industry, bridging Southern and Northern Nevada. The primary drivers of the Las Vegas economy are tourism, gaming and conventions, which in turn feed the retail and restaurant industries.

Las Vegas has 68 parks. The city owns the land for, but does not operate, four golf courses: Angel Park Golf Club, Desert Pines Golf Club, Durango Hills Golf Club and the Las Vegas Municipal Golf Course. It is also responsible for 123 playgrounds, 23 softball fields, 10 football fields, 44 soccer fields, 10 dog parks, six community centers, four senior centers, 109 skates parks, six swimming pools and more.

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV), is a public research university with over 30,000 students. It offers a diverse range of programs through various colleges, including the Howard R. Hughes College of Engineering, and the Lee Business Schools. UNLV is recognized for its research initiatives in hospitality, health sciences, and sustainability, often collaborating with the community. The campus is vibrant and inclusive, with numerous student organizations and events. UNLV emphasizes community engagement and civic responsibility, providing students with unique opportunities in hospitality and entrepreneurship thanks to its Las Vegas location.
