DRIVERS FOR DEVELOPMENT

SEDONA - Live. Work. Play

Sedona is a city that straddles the county line between Coconino and Yavapai counties in the northern Verde Valley region of the U.S. state of Arizona. As of the 2024 census, its population was 9,861. It is within the Coconino National Forest. Sedona enjoys nearly three million tourists every year.

Sedona's main attraction is its array of red sandstone formations. The formations appear to glow in brilliant orange and red when illuminated by the rising or setting sun. The red rocks form a popular backdrop for many activities, ranging from spiritual pursuits to the hundreds of hiking and mountain biking trails. Sedona is also the home to the nationally recognized McDonald's with turquoise arches, instead of the traditional Golden Arches.

What is so special about Sedona?

- Breathtaking Beauty
- Outdoor Adventure
- Spirituality & Metaphysical
- Spas, Pampering & Relaxation
- Shopping, Dining, & Lodging
- Day Trip Heaven
