INDIO, CALIFORNIA

Indio is presently the largest and fastest-growing city in Riverside County’s Coachella Valley, with a population exceeding 93,000 residents. Each year, nearly 1.4 million visitors flock to this vibrant “City of Festivals” to experience its renowned arts, food, and music events, including the prestigious Coachella Valley Music & Arts Festival and the Stagecoach Country Music Festival.

The city of Indio has over 34 projects in planning ranging from retail, housing; both affordable and market rate, theater, numerous fast food, service stations, hotel/motels, education, and carwashes to name a few.

Indio is a full-service city with 220 full-time staff. The City operates three enterprise operations: Indio Water Authority, Indio Municipal Golf, and Solid Waste. Fire services are provided under contract by Cal Fire. While virtually all cities had to make significant cuts during the Great Recession, public safety was made, and continues to be, a priority for the City of Indio.

Indio is a highly desirable city, particularly for young families, thanks to its nationally recognized public safety, excellent schools, and extensive park and community facilities. With over 3,000 new housing units planned or under construction, plus new hotels and retail, it’s a city on the rise. Its temperate winters, diverse culture, and quality municipal services attract and retain residents.
