CITY OF DETROIT

Detroit is a city in the midst of a dynamic transformation, fueled by billions in public and private investment, a burgeoning innovation sector, and a strong foundation of art, culture, and manufacturing. Once known solely as the Motor City, Detroit is now recognized for its thriving entrepreneurial ecosystem, revitalized neighborhoods, and major institutional anchors such as the Detroit Medical Center, Wayne State University, and the College for Creative Studies. With an increasingly walkable urban core, expanding transit options, and a focus on equitable development, Detroit offers a compelling landscape for forward-thinking investors, developers, and businesses.

AREA DEVELOPMENTS

Schaap Center for the Performing Arts

The Schaap Center will be a place to perform, share, learn, work, and appreciate collectively, while serving as an anchor in Jefferson Avenue’s flourishing cultural corridor dedicated to community, accessibility, inclusion, and artistic excellence.

the Shepherd

The campus grounds, designed by the Office of Strategy + Design (OSD), include a boutique bed and breakfast (ALEO), McArthur Binion’s Modern Ancient Brown Foundation, a public skatepark designed by Tony Hawk, and a sculpture park honoring the late Detroit artist Charles McGee. The Shepherd is part of Library Street Collective’s ongoing commitment to Detroit’s Little Village neighborhood.

Lantern

A new mixed-use arts hub is being realized in East Village through the redevelopment of a 100-year-old vacant industrial complex that will house two local arts non-profits and include approximately 5,300 square feet of affordable artist studios, an art gallery, and 4,000 square feet of creative retail – all connected by a 2,000-square-foot courtyard.

Ford's Michigan Central Station

Ford Motor Company purchased Michigan Central Station in 2018 as part of its vision to transform the historic landmark into a state-of-the-art hub for mobility and innovation. After years of meticulous restoration, the station is set to reopen in 2025 as the centerpiece of Michigan Central, Ford's 30-acre innovation district in Corktown.

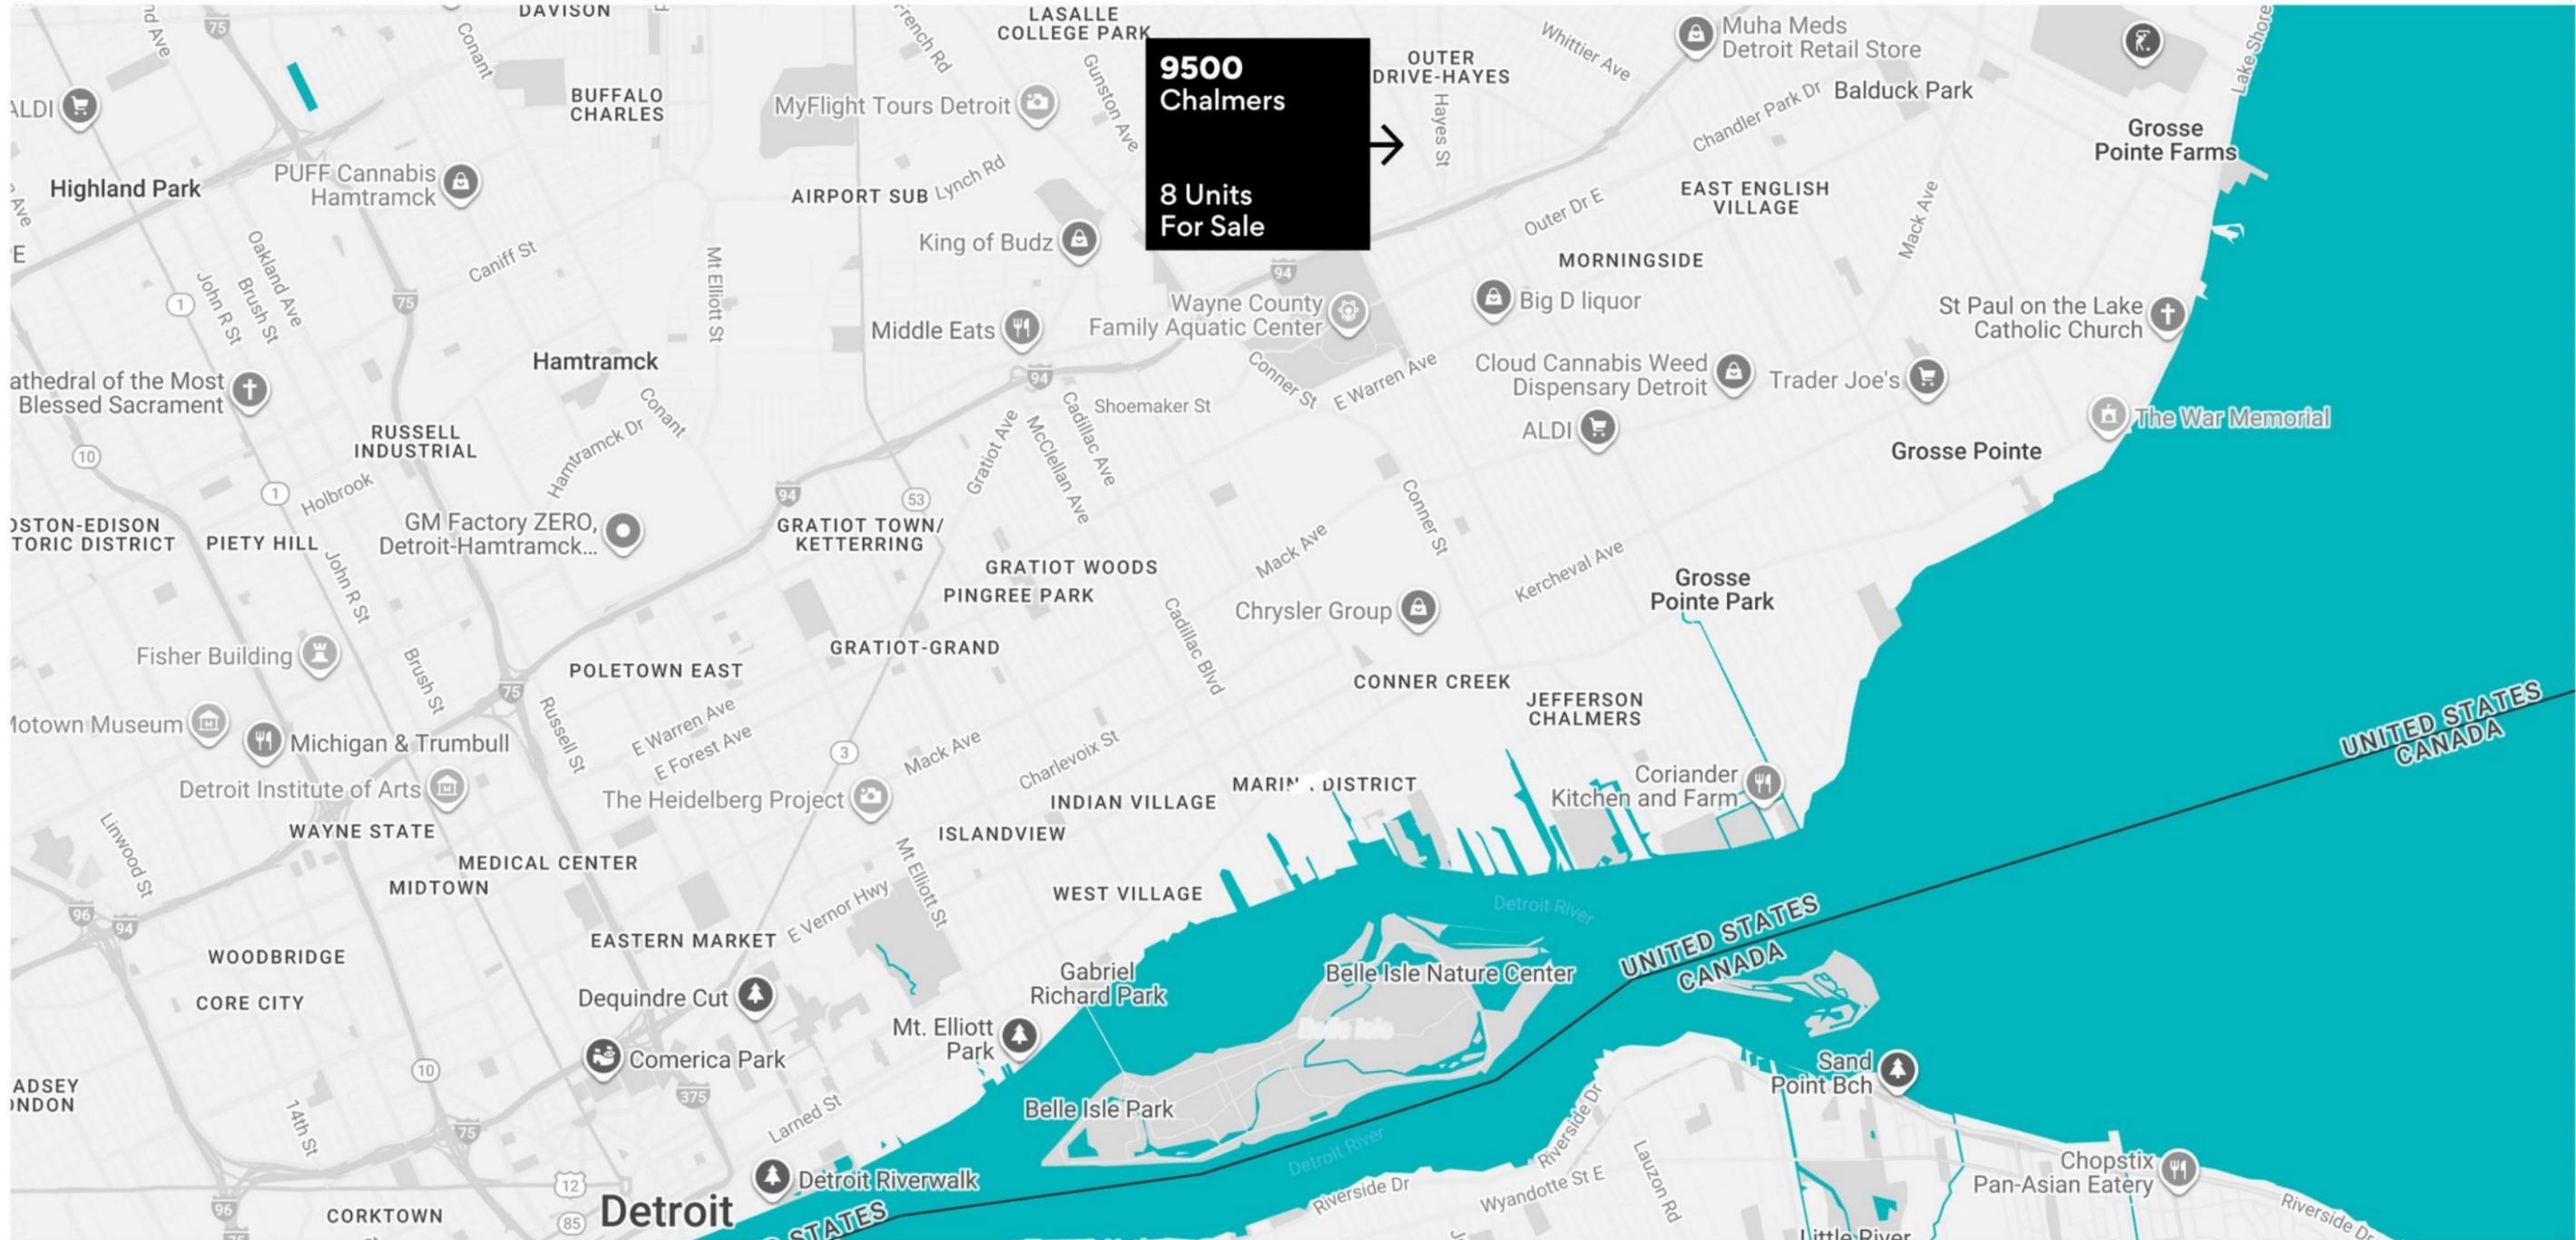

Hudson's Site

Hailed as the City's most significant development in decades, the development of the former Hudson's site in the Central Business District will include 1.5 million square feet of office, retail, restaurant, hotel, residential, and event spaces. Construction of the city's second tallest skyscraper is expected to be complete in 2024.

Residences at Water Square

The residential skyscraper under construction at the former site of the Joe Louis Arena will be the biggest apartment tower to open on the Detroit riverfront in decades. The all-glass high-rise boasting 496 upscale units will open in 2024 with an all-seasons swimming pool, rooftop terrace, and fitness center.
