Arlington, MA

393-395
Massachusetts Ave

Executive Summary

CastleArch Property Advisors is pleased to present a rare opportunity to acquire the iconic “Wayside Inn” at 393–395 Massachusetts Ave. in the Broadway Historic District of Arlington, MA. Built pre-1750 and listed on the National Register of Historic Places, this beautifully preserved and diligently updated landmark is the only remaining half-house of its Georgian-era style in Arlington. Long believed to have served as a stagecoach stop, and containing a fresh-water well in the basement, the property retains its historic charm while offering exceptional modern versatility.

Ideally situated just steps from Arlington Center’s boutiques, restaurants, and coffee shops, and within easy reach of the Minuteman Bike Trail, MBTA bus routes, Spy Pond, and the Cambridge line, this amenity-rich location provides unmatched convenience for both business and residential use.

The 6,372 SF building features a classic clapboard exterior with an intact historic façade and offers eight (8) office suites in total. The main level includes flexible commercial or office space well suited for studio or professional use, while the upper floors feature additional office suites and a one-bedroom apartment. With excellent street visibility, off-street parking, and proximity to transit and neighborhood amenities, the property accommodates a wide range of investment or end-user possibilities.

Whether you’re looking to invest, establish a business, or create a one-of-a-kind space within a historic setting, 393–395 Massachusetts Ave. delivers timeless character, a prime location, and remarkable flexibility.

Investment Highlights

- Fully occupied with many long-term tenants
- Well-maintained property
- Adjacent to MBTA bus routes and the Minuteman Bike Trail
- Off-street parking for seven vehicles
- Flexible commercial, office, and residential units
- High-visibility location

Location Overview

Arlington, MA

Arlington, Massachusetts is a highly desirable community located just six miles northwest of Boston. With a population of approximately 46,000, Arlington combines strong suburban appeal with exceptional regional connectivity and a vibrant commercial core anchored by Massachusetts Avenue—home to diverse retail, dining, and local businesses.

Known for its educated and affluent population, Arlington maintains a median household income of roughly $130,000, supported by a professional workforce employed across technology, healthcare, education, research, and other knowledge-based industries. Its proximity to Cambridge, Somerville, and Boston makes it a strategic home base for commuters and companies alike.

Massachusetts Avenue is Arlington’s primary commercial corridor. It offers consistent foot traffic, dense surrounding residential neighborhoods, and easy access to public transit, including multiple MBTA bus routes that connect directly to the Red Line. The Minuteman Commuter Bikeway, Spy Pond, and a variety of local amenities further reinforce Arlington’s strong quality of life.

Arlington’s blend of stability, walkability, demand, and high-income demographics positions it as one of Greater Boston’s premier markets for both retail and mixed-use investment. Its engaged community, historic charm, and robust economic fundamentals continue to support long-term value and sustained commercial activity.
