

Location

Royal Leamington Spa is an attractive spa town and is among the top ten regional centres of wealth and tourism in the UK. It has a shopper population of over 100,000 which includes the large student population at the University of Warwick. The property occupies a prominent corner location close to operators including Mint Velvet, Crew, L'Occitane, Ecco and numerous established restaurant and leisure operators.

The property has a good return frontage along Regent Street. There are bus stops along Parade and ample car parking close by. The property is set across basement, ground and first floors but alternative configurations can be considered.
