

Hanover Crossing is a 732,000 SF mixed-use redevelopment located 20 miles southeast of Boston in the affluent and highly desirable South Shore. Strategically positioned along the region's primary retail corridor, the center offers direct access from Routes 3 and 53. Hanover Crossing has emerged as a new hub for the South Shore—a place where families instantly feel at home—anchored by Market Basket and Trader Joe's, two of the nation's strongest grocery brands, and complemented by popular retailers including Dick's Sporting Goods, Macy's, L.L.Bean, Old Navy, and Sephora.

THE LOCATION

1775 Washington Street Hanover, MA 02339

Boston's South Shore offers the perfect family friendly coastal-suburban lifestyle: beautiful beaches, great schools, and quick commutes into the city.

THE MARKET

THE AREA

Hanover is one of the South Shore's most livable towns—safe, friendly, and full of energy. With top-rated schools, thriving youth sports, and easy access to Boston, it blends suburban comfort with real convenience making it the hub of the South Shore.
