"My team and I have thoroughly enjoyed working at 1350 Euclid Ave at Playhouse Square. When our clients visit us at our office, especially during an evening theater performance, they come away electrified, feeling the excitement and renaissance taking place in the city! The management team has been full supportive and accommodating. We recently underwent a year-long office remodel and they were fantastic partners. The business of wealth management requires non-standard work hours, including weekends. It is a bonus that the building is specially constructed to allow for separately-controlled heating/cooling in the workspaces."
