THIRD COAST INTERMODAL HUB: CONNECTING THE EAST TO THE WEST

Centrally located in the U.S and positioned with immediate access to two of the world's largest and most sophisticated rail networks, Third Coast Intermodal Hub sits on America's largest inland port and ensures an efficient supply chain for international operations to all major sea and inland ports. Connect with direct routes to major international trading partners and key U.S. consumer markets.

STRATEGIC, CENTRAL LOCATION

Situated in the heart of the Midwest, Third Coast Intermodal Hub is less than ten miles from the three major interstates connecting Chicagoland (I-80, I-55, I-355).

SPEED TO MARKET

Access to these major interstates, coupled with immediate access to BNSF and Union Pacific intermodal centers, puts Third Coast in an unmatched position to serve e-commerce, fulfillment, and distribution uses efficiently via truck or train.

COST EFFICIENCIES

Locating a distribution center or warehouse near a major intermodal facility can drastically reduce transportation costs & overhead for companies.

68% OF THE US POPULATION CAN BE REACHED WITHIN A TWO-DAY DRIVE OF THIRD COAST.

IMMEDIATE ACCESS TO BEST- IN-CLASS RAIL NETWORKS
