Property Highlights

FUNCTIONALITY

This freestanding industrial property is well-suited for immediate occupancy and efficient day-to-day operations. The existing building improvements provide a functional layout capable of supporting a range of service-oriented and light industrial uses. The site allows an owner-occupant to operate from day one without entitlement risk or development delay. Located outside city limits in the Fort Worth ETJ, the property offers operational flexibility and reduced zoning constraints compared to in-city industrial assets.

OUTSIDE STORAGE & YARD AREA

The property includes a substantial land component that is well-suited for outside storage, equipment staging, and yard-intensive industrial uses. The site configuration supports vehicle and fleet parking, material storage, and contractor laydown areas while maintaining efficient circulation. The ETJ location allows greater flexibility for outdoor storage compared to properties within city limits. This combination of usable yard area and improved building makes the property particularly attractive to industrial owner-users requiring both indoor and outdoor operational capacity.

FRONTAGE AND ACCESS

The property boasts strong visibility and accessibility with direct frontage along Jacksboro Highway, a heavily traveled thoroughfare linking northwest Fort Worth with surrounding communities. Easy ingress and egress make the site attractive to businesses seeking exposure to consistent traffic counts. Its prominent frontage ensures a commanding presence, ideal for attracting both local customers and regional users.

STRATEGIC LOCATION

Situated just minutes from Loop 820 and key Fort Worth submarkets, the property offers connectivity to major employment centers, residential neighborhoods, and regional trade areas. Its location positions it as a gateway site, linking growth in northwestern Tarrant County to the broader Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex. This strategic placement underscores its appeal to a wide range of users, from logistics and light industrial to retail and service businesses.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

2-10-2025

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
