NET LEASED DISCLAIMER

Marcus & Millichap hereby advises all prospective purchasers of Net Leased property as follows:

The information contained in this Marketing Brochure has been obtained from sources we believe to be reliable. However, Marcus & Millichap has not and will not verify any of this information, nor has Marcus & Millichap conducted any investigation regarding these matters. Marcus & Millichap makes no guarantee, warranty or representation whatsoever about the accuracy or completeness of any information provided.

As the Buyer of a net leased property, it is the Buyer's responsibility to independently confirm the accuracy and completeness of all material information before completing any purchase. This Marketing Brochure is not a substitute for your thorough due diligence investigation of this investment opportunity. Marcus & Millichap expressly denies any obligation to conduct a due diligence examination of this Property for Buyer.

Any projections, opinions, assumptions or estimates used in this Marketing Brochure are for example only and do not represent the current or future performance of this property. The value of a net leased property to you depends on factors that should be evaluated by you and your tax, financial and legal advisors.

Buyer and Buyer's tax, financial, legal, and construction advisors should conduct a careful, independent investigation of any net leased property to determine to your satisfaction with the suitability of the property for your needs.

Like all real estate investments, this investment carries significant risks. Buyer and Buyer's legal and financial advisors must request and carefully review all legal and financial documents related to the property and tenant. While the tenant's past performance at this or other locations is an important consideration, it is not a guarantee of future success. Similarly, the lease rate for some properties, including newly-constructed facilities or newly-acquired locations, may be set based on a tenant's projected sales with little or no record of actual performance, or comparable rents for the area. Returns are not guaranteed; the tenant and any guarantors may fail to pay the lease rent or property taxes, or may fail to comply with other material terms of the lease; cash flow may be interrupted in part or in whole due to market, economic, environmental or other conditions. Regardless of tenant history and lease guarantees, Buyer is responsible for conducting his/her own investigation of all matters affecting the intrinsic value of the property and the value of any long-term lease, including the likelihood of locating a replacement tenant if the current tenant should default or abandon the property, and the lease terms that Buyer may be able to negotiate with a potential replacement tenant considering the location of the property, and Buyer's legal ability to make alternate use of the property.

By accepting this Marketing Brochure you agree to release Marcus & Millichap Real Estate Investment Services and hold it harmless from any kind of claim, cost, expense, or liability arising out of your investigation and/or purchase of this net leased property.

BROOKLYN CENTER OVERVIEW

Brooklyn Center, MN is located in Hennepin County. The city is on the west bank of the Mississippi River on the northwest border of Minneapolis. Brooklyn Center is one of the original inner-ring suburbs of Minneapolis-St. Paul, the sixteenth largest metropolitan area in the United States, with about 3.63 million residents.

Formed as the center of local trade in the former Brooklyn Township since 1873, the rural area farmed market gardening for the nearby growing population of Minneapolis.

The village of Brooklyn Center incorporated in 1911, splitting from Brooklyn Township, to avoid annexation from the expanding city of Minneapolis. It incorporated as a city in 1966. The city became a bedroom community and industrial job center following postwar growth. It was the site of the regional mall Brookdale Center. The headquarters of Caribou Coffee moved into the city in 2004.

The city contains the site of the historic Earle Brown farm, home to Earle Brown, founder of the Minnesota State Patrol and first Sheriff of Hennepin County. The farm has been refurbished and now contains a bed and breakfast, event center, and office spaces.

Brooklyn Center is also home the FBI's Minneapolis field office, a $61M facility constructed in 2010/11.

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL OVERVIEW

The Minneapolis-St. Paul metro is a hub for corporate headquarters, consisting of 16 counties, 14 in the southeastern portion of central Minnesota and two in western Wisconsin. The metro has a population of almost 3.6 million people and covers 6,364 square miles. Nearly 1,000 of Minnesota's 10,000 lakes are located within the metro, along with the Mississippi, Minnesota and St. Croix rivers. The Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul straddle the Mississippi River. The Twin Cities metro area encompasses the seven core counties of the region, the most populous being Hennepin County with more than 1.2 million residents. Minneapolis is the most populated city in the state with more than 413,000 citizens, followed by St. Paul, the capital city, which has approximately 303,000 people.

METRO HIGHLIGHTS

DIVERSE ECONOMIC BASE

The metro's economy includes food production and delivery, information technology, biomedical technology, retail, finance, and logistics.

ATTRACTIVE BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Companies are drawn to the region's high quality of living, skilled and growing labor force, as well as the strong work ethic.

ABUNDANCE OF HIGHER EDUCATION

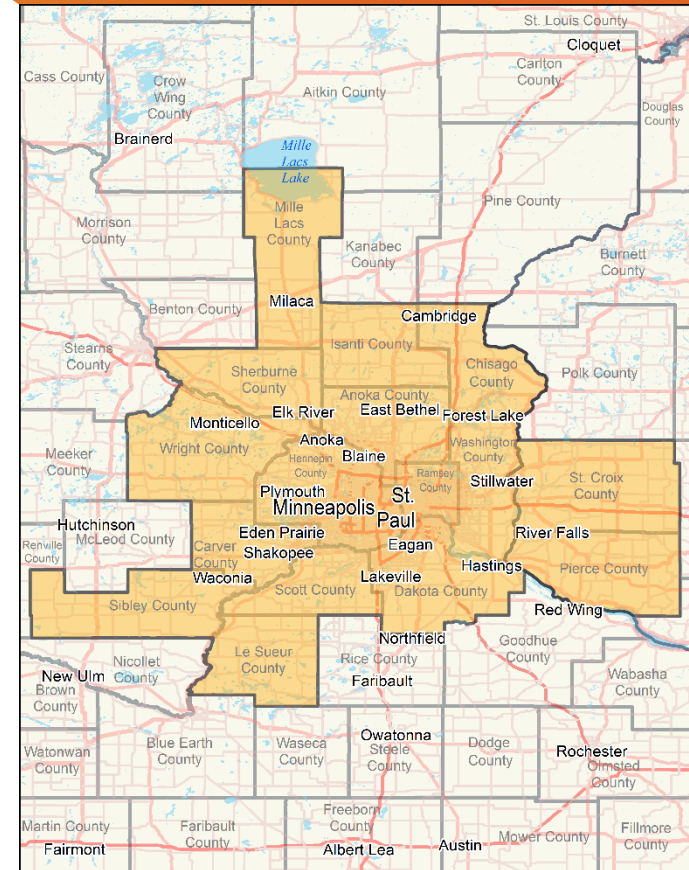

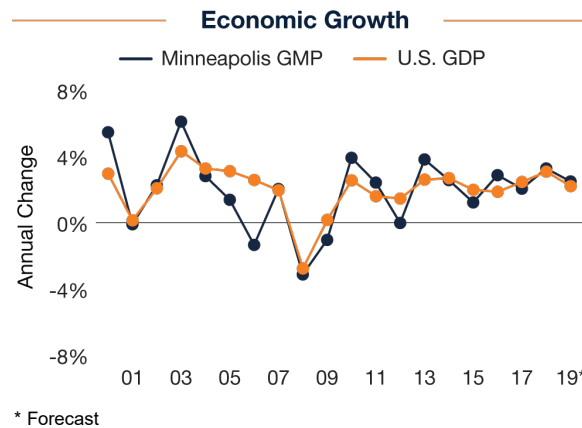

More than 20 colleges and universities are located throughout the metro, producing a highly educated pool of workers.

ECONOMY

- The metro's diverse economic base includes 18 Fortune 500 companies such as Target, UnitedHealth Group, 3M, Ameriprise Financial, Ecolab, U.S. Bancorp and General Mills.
- A strong manufacturing sector encompasses both traditional and high-tech manufacturing.
- Medical institutions including the University of Minnesota and the Mayo Clinic underpin a growing biomedical research and development sector.

- Incomes above the national average contribute to a homeownership rate of 70 percent, compared with 64 percent for the U.S.
- Roughly 39 percent of the population hold a bachelor's degree, and 13 percent of those residents also have obtained a graduate or professional degree.

2018 Population by Age

QUALITY OF LIFE

The growing urban region is home to six professional sports teams: the Minnesota Vikings, the Minnesota Twins, the Minnesota Timberwolves, the Minnesota Lynx, the Minnesota Wild and the Minnesota United. College sports are enjoyed at the University of Minnesota Twin Cities campus. The Vikings new facility (US Bank Stadium) held Super Bowl 52 in 2018 and is set to host this year's Men's NCAA Final Four. The area is noted for the array of orchestras, art museums and gardens. With more than 100 theater venues, the region is the third-largest theater market in the country. Strong arts education is supported by the Minneapolis College of Arts and Design, the Children's Theatre Company, MacPhail Center for the Arts and the Perpich Center for Arts.
