Location Overview

Capitol Hill is a dense, urban, historic neighborhood just east of Downtown Denver. Its housing stock features Mansions, Victorian houses, walk-up apartment, flats, condominiums, multifamily conversions. It is a popular place for all types of residents from VRBO and Air b&b guests to longer stay traveling professionals and visitors to long time locals.

The area is served by transit, has a lively music, retail and restaurant scene (especially along Colfax Avenue and surrounding streets). It is attractive area for people who are new to the City as well as locals making it ideal for renters and investors alike.

The extensive road construction occurring on Colfax Avenue unfortunately has completely disrupted the natural connection of Capitol Hill neighborhood to Uptown driving investors to focus more on investing in areas south of 13th Avenue during construction. This construction will impact residence for the foreseeable future suggesting investors and tenants a like will gravitate to this area.
