Oceanside

Oceanside is Southern California's most authentic beach town.

Enjoy a quintessential California coastal escape that includes wide sandy beaches, a quaint harbor, historic wooden pier, and charming bungalow neighborhoods.

As a playful, fun, and diverse destination, Oceanside enjoys personal expression surfing, skateboarding, bike riding, boating and even skydiving. Culinary experiences are pushed to the limits with a flourishing food and craft beer scene reflecting ceanside's creative and entrepreneurial spirit.

The city of Oceanside was incorporated in 1888 and is San Diego's northernmost city, bordered by the cities of Carlsbad and Vista, the unincorporated community of Bonsall, the Pacific Ocean, and the Marine Corp Base Camp Pendleton.

It is San Diego County's third largest city with a total population of 175,948. By 2035, the San Diego Association of Governments (SANDAG) estimates the population will reach 188,597, a 7.2% increase.

Oceanside is highway accessible via Interstate 5 and State Route 78 as well as by Amtrak train and the COASTER (Oceanside to Downtown San Diego), METROLINK (Oceanside to Los Angeles) and the SPRINTER (Oceanside to Escondido) commuter trains.

Oceanside's urbanization has provided higher income levels, increased density, continued economic growth and development for an even brighter and urban future. Over the last few years, Oceanside has developed a strong reputation for being a leading foodie and fine dining destination in San Diego County. San Diego County's place in the national craft brewery scene is well-known and Oceanside is a key player in the movement.
