TIFFIN OVERVIEW

Located in the heart of ICR Iowa, Tiffin is one of Iowa's fastest-growing cities, offering a balance of small-town charm and modern opportunity. The area is seeing significant investment and growth centered around the Park Place mixed-use development, a 450-acre, $275 million project planned to include retail, housing, entertainment and more—that has been driving much of the recent momentum. One of the most high-profile pieces, PinSeekers, is a 49,022 sq ft golf and entertainment venue built as a $29 million project with heated bays, mini-golf and food and beverage offerings. In addition, Homemakers Furniture broke ground on a planned 200,000 sq ft showroom in Park Place that is expected to generate around 200 jobs when it opens in the coming years (targeted for 2027–2028).

Tiffin's prime location provides excellent access to major markets, a highly educated regional workforce, and strong household incomes. With steady residential and commercial growth, quality infrastructure, and a business-friendly climate, Tiffin is an ideal destination for companies looking to invest and expand in the Midwest.
