Highly Renowned Gabriel's Restaurant and Bar

There's a reason why the Zagat Survey rated Gabriel's as one of America's best restaurants, and the U.K.'s The Guardian also included Gabriel's in its Top 10 Restaurants and Cafes in Santa Fe article: It's not just because of the famous guacamole expertly made table-side while you watch in anticipation, or the refreshing margaritas, or even the flower-filled patio with mountain views. It's all of these details combined, in the same way the restaurant's delicious combination platters feature the foods of Old Mexico and the Southwest. The Restaurant seats 235 guests inside and 150 guests outside in the garden patio which provides amazing views of the Sangre de Cristo mountain range. The parcel boasts an impressive 122 parking spots, ensuring ample space for visitors. It features partially covered outdoor seating adorned with vigas, creating a charming and inviting atmosphere. An outdoor workstation is available for servers, enhancing convenience and efficiency. The Southwestern-style setting includes a tranquil water fountain, lush landscaping with a large tree, vibrant flowers, and hanging plants, all adding to the picturesque environment. The property is elegantly enclosed by beautifully draped coyote fencing. There is an outdoor kiva fireplace, complemented by flagstone, brick, rock, and a fenced viewing area, perfect for cozy gatherings. Both the interior and exterior are illuminated by Southwestern wall sconces, while numerous skylights and windows provide excellent natural lighting. The floors are laid with Talavera and Saltillo tiles, contributing to the authentic Southwestern ambiance. The beautifully designed interior is further enhanced by artwork from the renowned artist Miguel Martinez, adding a touch of cultural sophistication.
