A few beach hotels, a classic record store, some real style taco shops, where surfers frequent. With a population of 60,000 people, Encinitas has something for everyone.

Encinitas' eclectic downtown has long drawn surfers and hippies with its unique and dynamic blend of San Diego's top surf shops, coffeehouses and record stores, not to mention the beaches are coveted by locals as hidden gems.

The warm California sunshine provides for year-round enjoyment of our beautiful parks, beaches and trails, making Encinitas a spectacular place to live, work, visit and raise a family. The century-old Downtown 101 coastal shopping district features historic architecture, quaint shops, sidewalk cafes, specialty retail stores and upscale restaurants.

BOTANICAL GARDENS, GOLF & SURF

Recently named among the 20 best surf towns in the world by National Geographic, Encinitas wears its surf history proudly, remaining an unspoiled reminder of the historic Highway 101 beach culture that thrived in the mid-1900s. Encinitas is home to some of the most beautiful beaches in California and known for its excellent surfing conditions. Each year, surfers from all over gather to compete in local surfing tournaments.

Encinitas is also known as the "Flower Capital of the World," because of its extensive collection of unique nurseries and gardens, most of which is the San Diego Botanic Gardens, and the world's leading grower of the Christmas flower, the poinsettia. San Diego Botanical Gardens, with an Amazon Rainforest, showcases the world's largest display of bamboo. The gardens of the Self Realization Center offer spectacular views of the Pacific Ocean in a serene garden-like setting.

Golf enthusiasts enjoy a round of golf at the Encinitas Ranch Golf Course, a championship 18-hole, par 72 course with panoramic ocean views.
