Built in 1904, the E. T. Collings home is a beautiful two-story property located in the Roosevelt Historic District, in the heart of downtown Phoenix. The charming front porch welcomes you into this elegant home full of historic features such as hardwood floors, moldings, sash and transom windows, fireplace and a grand wood staircase. The kitchen has custom cabinetry, farm sink, and granite countertops. Currently used as office space, it is zoned as Downtown Code, which allows for many permitted uses. Walk to restaurants, light rail, entertainment venues, and all the excitement that downtown Phoenix offers. New flooring throughout most of the home in 2017, new roof in 2018, driveway of pavers installed 2020. Tax records show home was built in 1919; Phoenix Historic Preservation office shows 1904.
