PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Celeste joins the Osborne Group with over 20 years of high-level business management and ownership experience. Having served as the General Manager and owner of Swain Ski Resort in Western New York for 15 years, Celeste has a proven track record of navigating complex operations and driving growth in the hospitality and recreation sectors.

As a licensed realtor, Celeste brings a unique perspective to the team, combining her boots-on-the-ground market knowledge with her extensive background as a multi-state business owner. She remains invested in several other family-owned businesses across New York and Pennsylvania, providing her with a deep understanding of the operational excellence and strategic discipline required to support a premier real estate team. Celeste understands the intricacies of asset management and the importance of integrity-driven leadership in every transaction.

Outside of the office, Celeste is a passionate outdoors enthusiast who recently completed a 2,655-mile thru-hike of the Pacific Crest Trail, traveling from Mexico to Canada over the course of six months. She brings that same “long-trail” mindset to her real estate career—maintaining the endurance, adaptability, and unwavering focus required to navigate long-term projects and ensure the Osborne Group delivers exceptional results for its clients.
