PROPERTY SUMMARY

Building Size:	14,500 SF
Lot Size:	2.55 Acres
Zoned:	L-I

Poised in the heart of the Broad Street Historic District, this 14,500-SF former school sits on a generous 2.2-acre parcel in dynamic Downtown Augusta. Built in 1934, the building boasts period architectural features—a perfect blend of character and opportunity.

Directly across the street from the Lofts at King's Mill, the property enjoys built-in visibility to a thriving residential community and steady pedestrian activity—an ideal audience for retail, dining, or professional services. Once a beloved community institution, the property is primed for adaptive re-use: envision offices, creative co-working, boutique hospitality, or residential lofts.

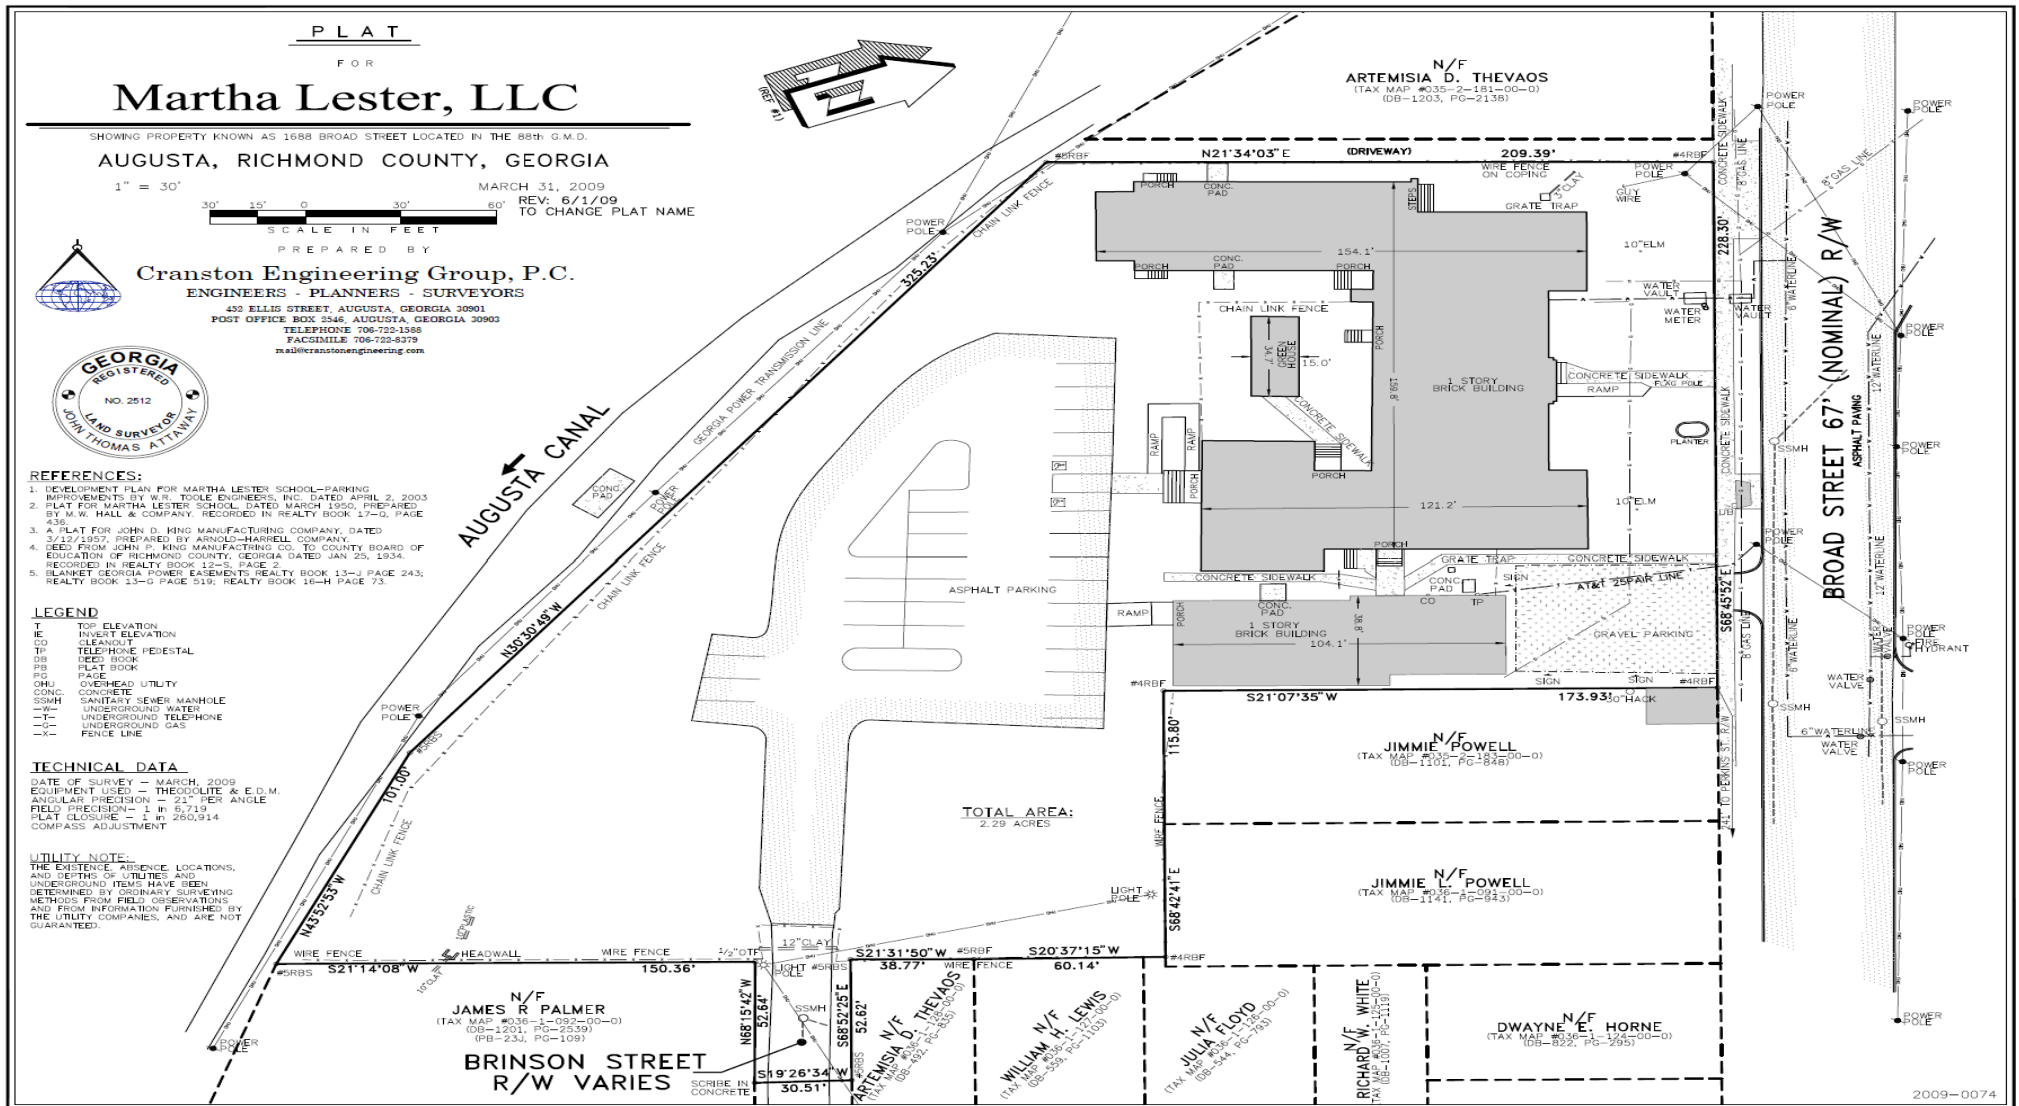

The lot offers expansive room for parking, landscaping, or additional build-out, all within walking distance of premier venues—Imperial and Miller Theaters, top dining, and Augusta's vibrant arts scene. With zoning flexibility, a growing downtown residential base, and convenient access to the wider Augusta–Richmond County market, this listing offers scalable possibilities and strategic appeal. Don't miss the chance to preserve and reinvent a downtown landmark.
