Aerial Map

The Morgantown MSA is home to over 140,000 people and nearly 6,000 businesses. Monongalia County is the primary economic engine for North Central West Virginia and is the fastest growing metropolitan area in the region. The presence of West Virginia University, an extensive health care network, and the continued growth of advanced technology industries help to ensure a bright and prosperous future for the greater Morgantown area. With it's many outdoor recreation activities, low cost of living and arts scene, Morgantown remains one of the most desirable cities in the Mid-Atlantic area.
