LOCATION OVERVIEW

Industrious South Station is located in the southern edge of downtown near Boston's Chinatown & the Leather District. Chinatown's dense mix of shops, restaurants, and housing in historic buildings creates an ever-bustling neighborhood. And the Leather District, a small neighborhood nestled between Dewey Square and Kneeland Street consists of nine distinct blocks. They are noted for their 19th century brick warehouse structures.

South Station is the ideal location for commuters as the MBTA Commuter Rail, Red Line, and major Bus Lines are a 2 minute walk away.
