About Sisters

Located in the heart of Central Oregon, Sisters is a vibrant and fast-growing community known for its scenic beauty, strong tourism economy, and high quality of life. Nestled at the base of the Cascade Mountains, Sisters blends small-town charm with year-round recreational opportunities, making it a sought-after destination for both residents and visitors alike.

The town is recognized for its western-themed architecture, thriving arts and cultural scene, and an active calendar of events, including the renowned Sisters Rodeo and the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show — the largest of its kind in the world. These attractions, combined with a robust outdoor recreation industry—ranging from hiking, biking, and skiing to fly fishing and rock climbing—drive consistent foot traffic and economic activity throughout the year.

Sisters is experiencing steady residential and commercial growth, fueled by migration trends favoring lifestyle-driven locations. With proximity to Bend (approximately 20 miles to the southeast) and access via U.S. Route 20, the town benefits from regional connectivity while maintaining its unique identity and community-oriented atmosphere.

The strong demographic trends, increasing demand for retail and service-based businesses, and the area’s commitment to managed, sustainable development position Sisters as a prime location for commercial investment.
