Property highlights

Nestled on a serene three-acre site at the end of a wooded drive, The District Edina offers convenient access to Hwy 169 and I-494. Nine Mile Creek borders the property, enhancing the shared main-level patio and the building's updated three-story mid-century architecture. Inside, the District features refined showrooms, expansive common areas, and a Governor's Lounge / art exhibit space. The property spans approximately 3.36 acres and includes signage visibility along Washington Ave. Outside, its two-sided 100-SF digital sign commands attention from approximately 180,000 vehicles along Highways 169 and 494, plus an additional 8,000 cars on Washington Ave.
