DESCRIPTION

This highly versatile flex building offers a unique combination of retail, office, and industrial warehouse spaces. The front features retail space with excellent street visibility, while the interior is divided into private office areas, including a conference room, perfect for professional use. The back portion of the building is designed for industrial purposes, with two overhead garage doors providing easy access to enclosed loading docks. The property also offers ample parking, making it convenient for both customers and employees. Ideal for businesses seeking a multi-functional space with both retail and industrial capabilities in a prime location.
