MARKET AREA OVERVIEW

SAN ANTONIO

San Antonio is one of the fastest-growing cities in the United States, combining a rich cultural history with a diverse and resilient economy. Founded in 1718, the city is home to world-renowned landmarks such as the Alamo and the River Walk, drawing more than 34 million visitors annually and supporting a thriving tourism and hospitality sector. Its strong military presence, anchored by Joint Base San Antonio—the largest joint base in the U.S.—provides both economic stability and a significant employment base.

Beyond its historic roots, San Antonio has emerged as a modern economic hub driven by healthcare, biosciences, cybersecurity, financial services, and energy. The city's cost of living remains below national averages, and its pro-business environment continues to attract both companies and residents seeking affordability without sacrificing quality of life. Major employers such as USAA, H-E-B, Valero, and Rackspace underscore the strength and diversity of the local economy.

Population growth in San Antonio is fueled by its affordability, strong job market, and family-friendly environment. Over the past decade, the metropolitan area has consistently ranked among the top U.S. cities for net in-migration. People are drawn not only by jobs and education but also by the city's vibrant culture, diverse neighborhoods, and access to Hill Country recreation. With an expanding labor force and a reputation for stability even during broader economic cycles, San Antonio continues to attract both residents and investors alike.

NORTHWEST SUBMARKET

The I-10 West corridor between La Cantera and Boerne has emerged as one of the most desirable and resilient commercial submarkets in the San Antonio metropolitan area. This stretch of highway serves as a primary growth spine for the region, characterized by sustained residential expansion, high-quality commercial development, and strong long-term demographics. Its strategic location and connectivity have attracted a broad mix of retail, dining, medical, office, and hospitality uses, reinforcing the corridor's role as a destination rather than a pass-through market.

The immediate trade area surrounding The Dominion is defined by affluence, stability, and established spending power. The Dominion and nearby Hill Country communities such as Fair Oaks Ranch are among the most sought-after residential enclaves in the region.

To the southeast, the La Cantera area functions as a major regional draw, combining destination retail, entertainment, hotels, and employment centers that generate steady inbound traffic throughout the week.

To the northwest, Boerne continues to experience robust growth as a highly desirable Hill Country community. Ongoing residential development, coupled with expanding commercial and mixed-use projects along the I-10 frontage, has increased daily traffic volumes and enhanced the corridor's overall economic vitality. Boerne's growth complements the established affluence of The Dominion, creating a balanced submarket

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Travis Taylor is a Managing Director at SVN | Traditions, holding the CCIM Designation and also the MAI Designation through the Appraisal Institute. With over two decades in commercial real estate, he has built a career distinguished by deep market expertise, strategic vision, and an unwavering commitment to guiding clients toward achieving their goals. He began his career as a commercial appraiser. Travis opened his own valuation firm, which was acquired by a national firm in 2017.

Travis left the appraisal profession to open and co-own SVN | Traditions, bringing his analytical and valuation experience to the deal side. Travis brings a highly unique skill set to the table, with the ability to understand one of the most important aspects of any deal...value! He has worked on hundreds of assignments across all property types, from small commercial to institutional investment grade properties.

Travis has focused much of his time advising clients, not only from a buying and selling prospective, but also in a consulting capacity. When a sale may not be the right course of action for a certain client at a given time, he's able to help them maximize value by improving net revenues, so that they are strategically positioned to realize the highest possible outcome when the client decides it is time. On the other side of the deal, buyer-clients also rely heavily on his underwriting abilities, so that their eyes are wide open. He finds tremendous satisfaction in knowing he's earned the trust of his clients with his ability to quickly, carefully and accurately size a deal, measure risk and understand the nuances that drive pricing. His buyers have a competitive advantage to quickly act on a deal, or move on to the next.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
