SOUTH TOWN SAN ANTONIO OVERVIEW

BLUESTAR ARTS COMPLEX

RUBY CITY/CHRIS PARK

KING WILLIAM HISTORIC DISTRICT

THE SAN ANTONIO RIVER WALK

Population

Southtown, one of San Antonio's most vibrant urban neighborhoods, is home to a diverse and growing population. Known for its mix of historic single-family homes, adaptive-reuse condo buildings and newer Class A apartment communities, Southtown is home to a unique blend of young professionals, artists and long-time residents. The area has become a sought-after location for those seeking a dynamic and creative community, making it the microcosm of the San Antonio's innovative spirit.

Attractions

Southtown is a cultural and culinary hotspot, featuring attractions like the Blue Star Arts Complex, the popular Ruby City art museum, breweries, and some of San Antonio's hippest eateries. The neighborhood also boasts proximity to San Antonio River Walk and the San Pedro Creek Trailhead, each with picturesque trails connecting residents to King William Historic District, Downtown San Antonio and The Pearl. Events such as First Fridays bring the community together, showcasing local artists, food trucks, and live music. With its blend of history and modern vibrancy, Southtown offers something for residents and tourists alike.

Industry

Southtown has evolved into a live/work/play destination, driven by its thriving arts, hospitality, and small business sectors. The area's artistic vibe coupled with the neighborhood's key employers (including HEB's HQ and many San Antonio public sector jobs) and its proximity to Downtown San Antonio, has made it home to a great mix of creatives, corporate employees and public sector employees. Restaurants, coffee shops and boutique retail spaces dominate the local economy, while its growing residential developments support demand for goods and services. Southtown's unique character and strategic location contribute to its role as a growing economic driver within San Antonio's broader landscape.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas Real Estate Commission (02/10/2025)

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker.
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH- INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.

- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
