ROPERTY DESCRIPTION & LOCATION DESCRIPTION

Vintage Mixed-Use Property in the Heart of the Mission District

Built in 1926, 2360 Mission Street is a mixed-use property comprised of 14 residential apartments and 2 commercial spaces, offering 65 feet of frontage along vibrant Mission Street. The property sits on an approximately 5,400 square foot lot, and all units are separately metered for gas and electricity, providing efficiency and convenience.

The building's impeccable location is one of its strongest draws, situated in the heart of San Francisco's historic and ever-popular Mission District. This dynamic neighborhood is known for its eclectic character, cultural vibrancy, and abundant retail, making it one of the most desirable neighborhoods. With close proximity to both Muni lines and BART, tenants enjoy seamless access to transportation and the greater Bay Area.

2360 Mission Street offers an outstanding opportunity to acquire a solid-performing, vintage investment property with tremendous long-term upside. The Mission District consistently commands some of San Francisco's strongest occupancy and rental rates, resulting in steady appreciation and reliable growth. This property stands as a timeless piece of the city's architectural history while offering exceptional potential for future value.
