OFFERING SUMMARY

TAYLOR ROAD INDUSTRIAL AND OUTDOOR STORAGE

INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

With 60,100 square feet of pole storage buildings, contractor shop space and offices on 7.6 acres, this industrial and outdoor storage property is a versatile investment property. Buyers can utilize the property for industrial rental, expanded storage operations, or it can be used as a new location for one or more businesses.

The West portion of the property has been occupied by Buckeye Landscape since 2008 and will soon be available for new tenants or businesses. It includes approximately 20,300 square feet of buildings with a total fenced area of approximately 2.75 acres. The shop space, pole buildings and outdoor storage yard could be occupied by a new owner, or an investor could lease the space to a new tenant. They have been used by a landscape contractor or as a rental for over 17 years.

The East portion of the property is home to the G&K Boat & RV Storage business which was developed by the Seller and conveys with the property. This storage business is 100% occupied and has a long history of success. It could also easily be expanded to take over more of the property. The boat and RV storage business has a long-term, steady customer base, extremely strong historical occupancy and significant tenant demand such that there has been a waiting list for boat and RV storage space.

The property has a history of retail, storage and industrial use. It used to be a boat retailer and service provider, Bexley Marine, which utilized the hoists and above-ground fuel facilities still at the property. That business offered an ancillary service of boat storage to its customers. The current owners took over the property and significantly expanded the scope of the storage operation.

The location is highly visible and is a desirable place to do business. Located in Blacklick and Jefferson Township, 6608 Taylor Road sees over 10,000 vehicles per day. The property is located at the intersection of Eastgate Parkway at the entrance of the Eastgate Industrial Park. The property is 2.9 miles from I-270 and easily services the communities of Blacklick, Jefferson Township, Gahanna, New Albany and Reynoldsburg via Reynoldsburg - New Albany Road (SR 605). It is an 11 minute drive to CMH airport and 17 minutes to downtown Columbus.

The site boasts versatile Community Service District (CS) zoning in Jefferson Township. This zone is suitable for building materials dealers, automotive sales, general rental centers and many other commercial and screened outdoor storage uses. The property has been used for landscape contracting and boat and RV storage for decades.

Demographics

Marcus & Millichap

BLACKLICK, OHIO

TAYLOR ROAD INDUSTRIAL AND OUTDOOR STORAGE

MARKET OVERVIEW

Blacklick is a small, unincorporated community located in southern Jefferson Township within Franklin County, Ohio, and forms part of the Columbus Metropolitan Area. With an estimated population of approximately 31,400 residents, Blacklick offers excellent proximity to one of the fastest-growing economic regions in Central Ohio. Positioned just east of Gahanna and minutes from New Albany, the community provides residents with a quiet, nature-oriented lifestyle while maintaining convenient access to major employment centers, regional amenities, and downtown Columbus, which is roughly a 20- to 25-minute drive via Interstates 670 and 70. Housing fundamentals remain strong, with a median home value of approximately $350,000 and pricing trends continuing to climb. Demand is being further reinforced by significant regional economic momentum, most notably the Intel “Ohio One” semiconductor expansion in nearby New Albany, which has positioned Blacklick as an attractive residential option for professionals seeking proximity to this emerging technology corridor.

Blacklick’s lifestyle appeal is anchored by access to outdoor recreation and a close-knit, community-oriented atmosphere. The area is home to Blacklick Woods Metro Park, a 643-acre regional destination featuring miles of trails, a state-of-the-art nature center, a unique elevated Canopy Walk, and year-round recreational opportunities. Additional amenities include Olde Quarry Park, championship golf at Blacklick Woods Golf Course, and local dining staples such as Flanagan’s Pub, a longtime neighborhood gathering place. Residents also benefit from access to top-rated school districts, including Gahanna-Jefferson and Licking Heights, further supporting long-term residential stability. Together, Blacklick’s strategic location, strong housing fundamentals, and high quality of life position it as a desirable suburban enclave within the greater Columbus market.

HIGHLIGHTS

Strategic Columbus Metro Location: Positioned between Gahanna and New Albany with convenient access to downtown Columbus, John Glenn International Airport, and the Intel “Ohio One” development.

Strong Residential Fundamentals: Median home values around $350,000 with limited days on the market reflect sustained demand and a seller-favorable environment.

High Quality of Life: Home to one of Central Ohio’s largest Metro Parks, championship golf, and a peaceful, community-focused suburban atmosphere.
