Feel at home, at your office...

Co-created by a designer and psychologist to be professional but inviting, the suites in this elevator building contain high end finishes commensurate with their prime Upper East Side location. Occupants will appreciate the abundant natural light, tall ceilings and designer touches.

With two tastefully constructed pantries, three beautiful bathrooms and unique hand blown pendant lighting throughout, the suites bring some of the comforts of an upscale living room into an office setting.

Whether you are looking to rent one office or whole floor, small rooms or large, please contact us.
