Clark County Nevada

Synopsis

As of the 2020 census, the population was 2,265,461, with an estimated population of 2,350,611 in 2024. Most of the county population resides in the Las Vegas Census County Divisions across 435 square miles. It is by far the most populous county in Nevada, and the 14th most populous county in the United States. It covers 7% of the state's land area but holds 73% of the state's population, making Nevada one of the most centralized states in the United States.

With jurisdiction over the world-famous Las Vegas Strip and covering an area the size of New Jersey, Clark County is the nation's 14th-largest county. The County is a mix of urban and rural locales that offers the convenience of city living with access to some of the nation's best outdoor recreational areas just a short drive away.

Clark County employs more than 10,000 people over 38 departments. The County has an annual budget of $11.4 billion, which surpasses that of the state government.

Professional Sports

Synopsis

The Las Vegas metropolitan area is home to many sports, most of which take place in the unincorporated communities around Las Vegas rather than in the city itself.

The Las Vegas Valley has four major league professional teams: the Vegas Golden Knights of the NHL (began play in 2017 as the region's first major pro team), the Las Vegas Raiders of the NFL (began play in 2020), the Las Vegas Aces of the WNBA (began play in 2018), and the Las Vegas Athletics of the MLB (inaugural season will commence at its new ballpark for the 2028 season).

Las Vegas is home to three minor league sports teams: the Las Vegas Aviators of Minor League Baseball, The Las Vegas Lights FC of the USL Championship, the league at the second of US men soccer league system, The Henderson Silver Knights of the American Hockey league of the NHL. The Las Vegas Lights are currently the only team playing in the city of Las Vegas, at the city-owned Cashman Field.

Road Transportation

Las Vegas, and surrounding towns are less than one day's drive over arterial interstate highways to nearly 60 million consumers as well as to the major U.S. deep water seaports serving the Pacific Rim.

Rail Transportation

Major Union Pacific and Southern Pacific rail connections in Las Vegas and Reno also, too, play an essential role in carrying the world's freight from the Pacific Coast to America's Heartland and beyond.

Air Transportation

Globally, Harry Reid International Airport in Las Vegas has been a Top 20 airport for more than five years, annually serving more than 40 million and handling more than 189 million pounds of cargo.
