PROPERTY OVERVIEW

ICONIC "BLUESTEIN BUILDING", as featured in the classic movie, "The Notebook". King Street prominence, coupled with striking "blue" architectural facade, and originally constructed by current owners family over hundred years ago and meticulously cared for by same to this day! Building completely rebuilt in 1989 securing the original facade. This creates a rare opportunity for an upstairs office space for Charleston corporate headquarters. One of the most recognizable landmark buildings in Mid Town Charleston, serving as a beacon for the area. Surrounded by many local and national retailers and restaurants with hotels, office and retail nearby, the site provides on-site parking availability, approved signage and more!

496 King Street invites you to discover the charm, style, and Southern hospitality that Charleston is known.
