PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

Strategic Location

Situated at 1614 W Roosevelt St, this property enjoys a prime position just minutes from downtown Phoenix, at the convergence of the Grand Ave and Roosevelt corridors. The Armory offers excellent accessibility to major transportation routes including freeways and the vibrant city center.

Expansive Land Area

Spanning 1.99 acres, the property provides ample space for diverse business operations, enhanced by a gated yard that ensures security and privacy.

Abundant Parking

With extensive parking facilities, tenants and visitors can enjoy convenience and ease of access, a rare feature in downtown-adjacent properties.

Versatile Spaces

The building offers a blend of creative office spaces and functional warehouse areas, catering to a wide range of business needs from innovative startups to established enterprises. Each unit comes equipped with its own private HVAC system and control, polished concrete floors and LED lighting. The Armory also has a shared conference room, break room and 3 shared restrooms.

Historic Appeal with Modern Amenities

The property's storied past as a National Guard facility adds a unique historical dimension, while its recent renovations ensure contemporary comfort and efficiency.

Historically Registered

The historic register recognizes buildings, structures, sites, objects and districts significant in local, regional, state or national history, architecture, archaeology, engineering and culture. Properties are listed on the register by being rezoned with an Historic Preservation (HP) zoning overlay. Once listed, properties are protected from demolition and other adverse alterations through a special development review process. These historically registered properties are also eligible to receive city incentives to assist with rehabilitation.

Zoned PUD

The Planned Unit Development (PUD) zoning allows for a versatile mix of office, industrial, and entertainment uses, making it ideal for a wide range of business activities.
