Clark County Nevada

Synopsis

As of the 2020 census, the population was 2,265,461, with an estimated population of 2,506,458 in 2025. Most of the county population resides in the Las Vegas Census County Divisions across ±435 square miles. It is by far the most populous county in Nevada, and the 11th most populous county in the United States. It covers 7% of the state's land area but holds 73% of the state's population, making Nevada one of the most centralized states in the United States.

With jurisdiction over the world-famous Las Vegas Strip and covering an area the size of New Jersey, Clark County is the nation's 14th-largest county. The County is a mix of urban and rural locales that offers the convenience of city living with access to some of the nation's best outdoor recreational areas just a short drive away.

Clark County employs more than 10,000 people over 38 departments. The County has an annual budget of $11.4 billion, which surpasses that of the state government.

Synopsis

The South Las Vegas submarket serves as the valley's indispensable logistical gateway, acting as the primary handshake for business travelers and heavy freight surging from California and Arizona via the I-15. Strategically anchored at the high-octane nexus of the I-15 and I-215 Beltway, this corridor has evolved from a transit-heavy periphery into a premier destination for both residential and commercial realty. In 2026, the area is a masterclass in balanced expansion, where luxury residential enclaves like those in West Henderson and Inspirada sit alongside massive, cutting-edge industrial hubs and distribution centers. The submarket's location offers unparalleled connectivity, providing a short, efficient drive to both the Henderson Executive Airport and Harry Reid International Airport. With the iconic Las Vegas Strip just minutes to the north, the South submarket effortlessly blends industrial scale with sophisticated desert living.

Professional Sports

Synopsis

The Las Vegas Valley is home to many sports, most of which take place in the unincorporated communities around Las Vegas rather than in the city itself. It has rapidly established itself as a premier sports city, hosting a lineup of major professional teams that have brought home championships. These successful teams not only foster fan interest and growth but also play a significant role in strengthening the local economy.

The Vegas Golden Knights, the city's first major league franchise, wasted no time making their mark by winning the Stanley Cup in 2023. The Las Vegas Aces have dominated the WNBA, securing back-to-back championships in 2022 and 2023. The Las Vegas Raiders, while having their championship triumphs tied to their time in Oakland and Los Angeles, have a storied history that includes three world championship victories (XI, XV, and XVIII). The Las Vegas Athletics brings a legacy of 9 world championships and are looking to add more at their new home. These teams have not only captivated local fans but have also helped solidify reputation of the city as a major player in the world of professional sports.

Las Vegas is also a great place for minor league sports, with the Las Vegas Aviators (Minor League Baseball, Triple-A affiliate of the Las Vegas Athletics), the Henderson Silver Knights (American Hockey League, affiliate of the Vegas Golden Knights), and the Las Vegas Lights FC (USL Championship soccer) all calling the area home. The city also has indoor football and box lacrosse teams, the Vegas Knight Hawks and the Las Vegas Desert Dogs, respectively, who share a venue in Henderson.
