HISTORICAL LANDMARK IN THE WAREHOUSE DISTRICT

- Oldest remaining warehouse in Phoenix. Listed on State & National Registry of Historic Places in 1984. Acquired in 2003 by Michael Levine and added to the City HP List in 2004.
- Built by Sturges Brothers.
- Bought in 1919 by Goldschmidt brothers and run by their nephew Monte Mansfield.
- Monte was the person who convinced Howard Hughes to move Hughes Aircraft (now Raytheon) to Tucson.
