CENTRAL BUSINESS DISTRICT, DENVER

39.7449° N, 104.9943° W

DOWNTOWN DENVER CURRENTLY RANKED ONE OF THE BEST PLACES TO LIVE IN THE COUNTRY.

Downtown Denver (officially called Central Business District or CBD) is the commercial core of Denver. Here, you'll find some of the city's best dining, shopping, arts, and culture. This urban hub has a distinct "downtown" feel yet balances a professional and casual vibe, as shiny skyscrapers stand side-by-side with historic brick buildings and pedestrians ranging from businesspeople to tourists alike. Enjoy wandering and window shopping on 16th Street, a pedestrian shopping center finalized in the early 1980s that transformed downtown from just a business center to a place to hang after work (though its nightlife is still much sleepier than neighboring Union Station). While traffic and parking are predictably arduous, the well-serviced public transit options make up for it. A smaller residential population marries the skyscraper-laden downtown, but those that call it home experience history, convenience, and the thrill of downtown living. What really draws people here is the fact that there's so much to do. From some of Denver's biggest cultural venues to an improving dining scene to shopping at Denver Pavilions to easily accessible public transportation and bike lanes, CBD is where you live when you want to be in the center of the action.
