Submarket Overview

Gateway Airport / Loop 202 Corridor

The Gateway Airport/Loop 202 office submarket is one of the most dynamic and fundamentally strong commercial hubs in the Phoenix metropolitan area. The area's rapid expansion is fueled by its strategic location, which offers unparalleled access to a robust labor pool, major transportation corridors, and the explosive residential and corporate growth of the Town of Gilbert and the surrounding Southeast Valley. For investors, this translates into a stable, high-demand environment poised for continued appreciation.

Exceptional Market Tightness & Tenant Demand

The submarket boasts an exceptionally low office vacancy rate of just 5.3% as of Q3 2025, a figure that is significantly tighter than the market's 5-year (6.4%) and 10-year (8.4%) historical averages, demonstrating sustained and strengthening demand. For an asset like 1472 E Williams Field, the story is even more compelling: the vacancy rate for 3-Star properties like it is an incredibly low 4.1%. This market tightness is further evidenced by the positive net absorption of over 21,000 SF in the past year, indicating that tenant demand continues to outpace available supply and providing a secure foundation for long-term investment.

Premium Rental Rates & Strong Investor Confidence

The desirability of the Gateway Airport/Loop 202 corridor allows landlords to command premium rental rates, with the average asking rent of approximately $30.00/SF surpassing the Phoenix metro average. While recent growth has been stable, the submarket's 10-year average rent growth stands at a healthy 4.1%, signaling consistent long-term performance. Confidence in the area's future is booming, evidenced by nearly 200,000 SF of new office space currently under construction—a figure that is nearly four times the 10-year average for new development. This wave of new, high-quality inventory is a testament to the area's perceived trajectory and will continue to attract high-caliber tenants, further elevating the submarket's profile.

A Liquid & Accelerating Investment Market

The Gateway Airport/Loop 202 submarket is a favored target for investors, proven by a remarkable $69.1 million in sales volume over the past 12 months. This represents a significant acceleration of capital flow into the area, far outpacing the 5-year average sales volume of $56.7 million.
