DOWNTOWN MIAMI

The heart of the Financial District. The center of international trade. The largest concentration of international banks in the world. And the be-all and end-all for inspiring corporations.

BRICKELL

Along with Downtown Miami, this is the core of our banking, investing and financial sectors. Home to many foreign consulates and an established residential area with Mary Brickell Village shopping and dining district. In short, the business savvy live and work here.

DESIGN DISTRICT

Dedicated to innovative fashion, design, architecture and dining, Miami's Design District is an up-and-coming piece of the city. With public art installations, exclusive design showrooms, chic fashion boutiques, luxury retail experiences and rejuvenated historical structures, this neighborhood has become a vibrant and thriving urban metropolis.

CENTRAL NEIGHBORHOOD

MIDTOWN MIAMI

The trendiest neighborhood in South Florida. Midtown Miami has become one of the largest creative communities in the nation. An urban epicenter of galleries, cafes, bars and creativity, it's the go-to locale for those seeking a different kind of Miami experience.

WYNWOOD

Home to a plethora of art galleries, studios, private collections and museums, Wynwood has been transformed into one of the hottest sections of Miami. With the Wynwood Walls covered in street art by some of the world's greatest artists, a free monthly ArtWalk, and a chic boho vibe, Miami's art scene is experiencing a renaissance just south of I-195.

EDGEWATER

North of Downtown Miami, Edgewater is evolving into the place to live. A developing urban sanctuary where residents can kick back and take in the view or head out and enjoy MiMo on BiBo, the Miami Modernist Architecture on Biscayne Boulevard.
