PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Carrie Tinucci-Troll serves as an Advisor for SVN | Core 3 in Bloomington, IL. She works with business owners and investors in selling, purchasing, and leasing commercial property in the Central Illinois market.

Carrie's past work experience includes over 12 years in the education field, teaching Spanish at the elementary level. With her strong educational background, Carrie can apply many of the skills she used in the classroom to the real estate world. She is organized, friendly, hard-working, and determined to meet her client's needs.

After obtaining her real estate license in the spring of 2015, Carrie took an interest in the residential world, working with buyers and sellers. After transitioning to the commercial real estate field upon joining SVN Core 3 in the summer of 2020, Carrie now specializes in office and multifamily sales, leasing, and tenant representation.

Carrie is a member of the Mid Illinois Realtors Association, serving on multiple committees, as well as their Board of Directors. She also volunteers regularly with her local Kiwanis chapter, serving as the club's President. Carrie is also involved with Child Protection Network, where she serves as a Board Member. Carrie completed her CCIM designation October 2025 and was also a recipient of the Crexi Platinum Broker Award in 2022.
