AREA AT A GLANCE

Red Line Bus System

Indianapolis's bus rapid transit system was inaugurated with the implementation of the Red Line in 2020. Dedicated bus lanes and frequent service intervals make this 13 mile connection of county lines to the south and the north through downtown a popular choice for transit.

Stations connect Greenwood Park Mall to the south with the University of Indianapolis, Garfield Park, Fountain Square, Fletcher Place, all of downtown Indy on to the Children's Museum and Broad Ripple's creative entertainment center to the north.

Fountain Square

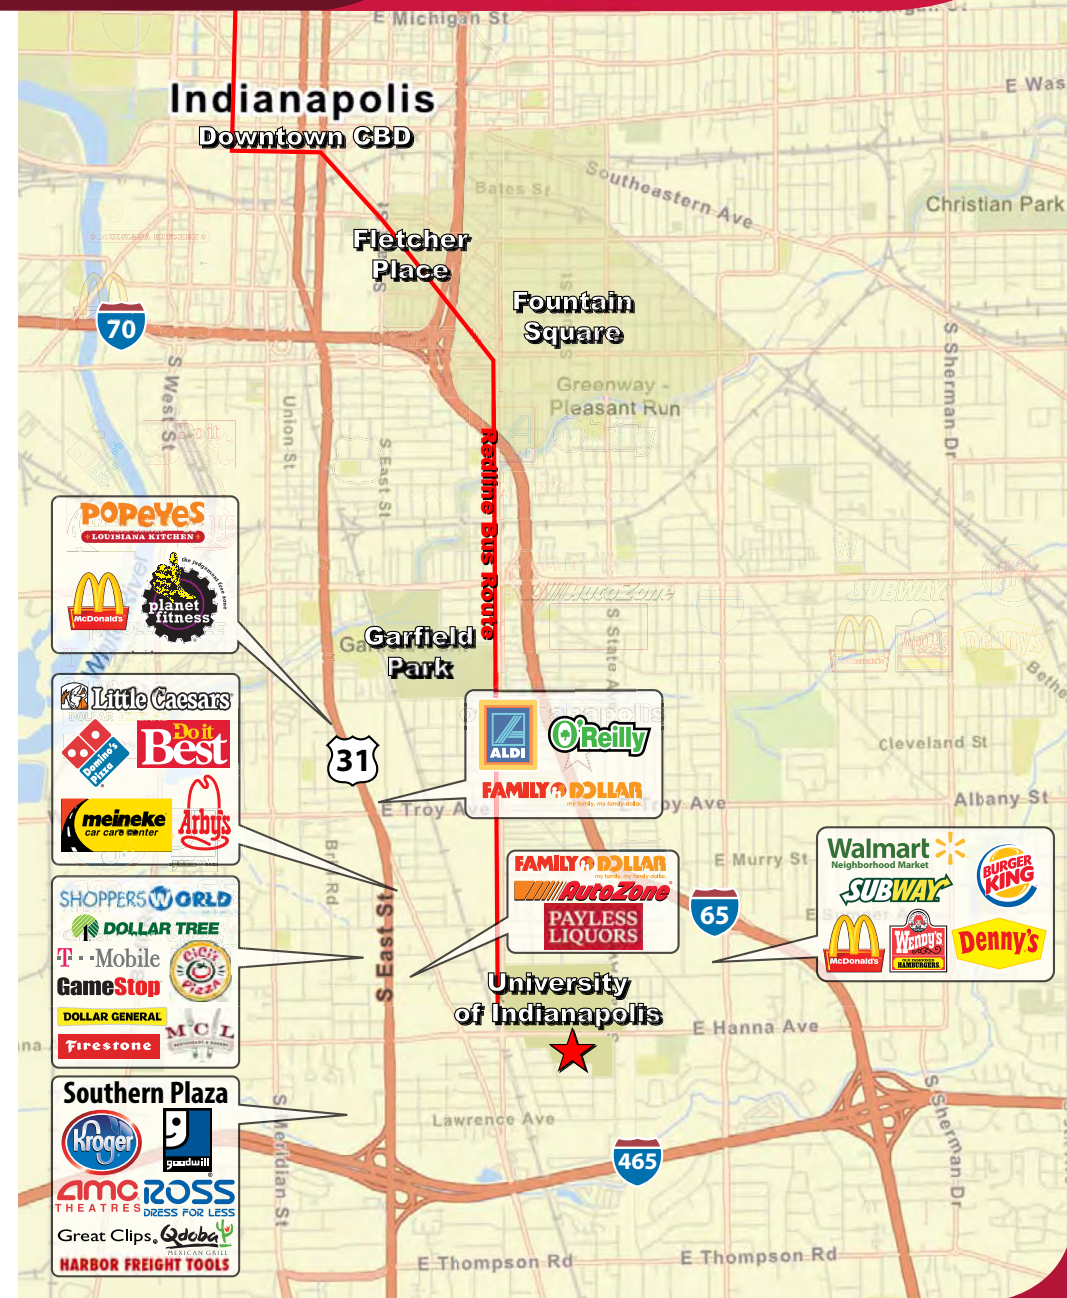

- The State of Indiana's first commercial historic district
- Vibrant Art's community embracing a variety of formats
- Lively entertainment scene with music, shows and festivals
- Multiple diverse performance venues in addition to bars
- Unique dining options with wide variety of menu options
- James Beard nominated chefs
- Shopping experiences with locally owned options

Fletcher Place

- One of the city's oldest (and most stylish!) neighborhoods
- Offers a beautiful blend of art, music, nature, and culture
- Has some of Indy's top-rated restaurants, shops, and breweries
- Located along the Indianapolis Cultural Trail and the Red line

Garfield Park

- Established in 1876
- 128 acres in size
- Center for Performing Arts 8,000 square feet
- Amphitheater with Covered stage
- Conservatory 10,000 square feet
- Sunken Gardens and Fountains occupy 3 Acres
- Aquatic and Family Center
- On the National Register of Historic Places
