Location & Features

±114 Acres For Sale or Build-To-Suit

This ±114 acre parcel is a highly desirable site for industrial development with close proximity to Arizona State Route 95, Interstate 40, Bullhead City, and California, offering same-day access to suppliers and customers in Arizona, California, Nevada, Utah, and New Mexico.

Mohave County

Mohave County is in the northwestern corner of Arizona. As of the 2020 census, its population was 213,267. The county seat is Kingman, and the largest city is Lake Havasu City. It is the fifth largest county in the United States (by area).

The entire county is ±13,470 square miles. Mohave County is the second-largest county in the state of Arizona and the fifth-largest county in the Country. Mohave Valley is located in western Mohave County in the valley of the same name, drained by the Colorado River. Mohave Valley is on the east side of Arizona State Route 95, which leads 3 miles north to Fort Mohave, 16 miles north to Bullhead City, and 6 miles south to Needles, California, across the Colorado River.

Mohave County is the crossroads of the American Southwest. I-40 crosses it with traffic east to west from border to border, and US-93 carries traffic north and south from Phoenix to Las Vegas. Mohave County also has the longest continuous stretch of Historic Route 66. *Information from Mohave.gov, Mohave County Highways, Wikipedia

Water Rights

- The water rights allow access to  $\pm 6.44$  acre feet or  $\pm 2,098,483$  gallons per acre per year.
- High volume water users could access to appropriately 6 acre feet of groundwater or approximately 2,000,000 gallons per acres per year. Suitability of the water for intended uses will need to be determined by users via water sampling and testing. The release of excess process waters will require pre-treatment and evaluation for total daily volumes to determine suitable means of discharge from the facility.

About Becknell Industrial

Becknell Industrial is a privately held national real estate development firm focused exclusively on industrial buildings, including distribution centers, warehouses, processing and assembly plants, manufacturing plants, research-anddevelopment centers, service centers and other facilities vital to the global supply-chain management of regional, national and multi-national operations.

Becknell launched into the industrial real estate business in 1990 when co-founders Dan Harrington and Fritz Hartrich joined forces to build and lease a custom warehouse to Nabisco, a client Hartrich began developing for in the 1970s. It was the first of many enduring relationships Becknell has fostered since.

Becknell's national portfolio now includes more than 34 million square feet of industrial real estate property, in addition to over 10 million square feet of developable ground for future development.

At the core of Becknell's superior delivery system is our designbuild construction capabilities. Becknell's vertically integrated approach takes an experienced team of professionals working closely together. Our executive team alone has more than 100 years of collective real estate and business experience, while the rest of our highly talented staff incorporates a wealth of technical expertise in key trades that include architects, engineers, construction managers and CPAs.
