ABOUT DES MOINES

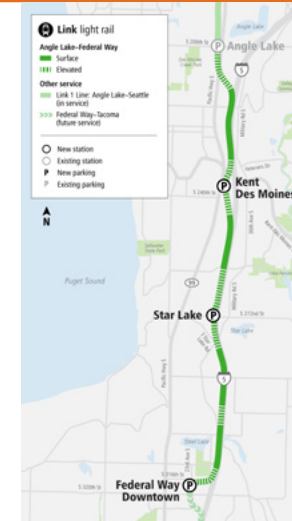

Des Moines is located near the core of the Seattle metropolitan region on the east bank of Puget Sound. It is a primarily residential city nestled midway between Seattle and Tacoma in Washington State. As of 2023, the city's population has grown to approximately 32,482 residents, solidifying its position as one of the state's larger communities.

Known for its elongated shape, Des Moines spans 6.3 miles in length and 2.1 miles in width, encompassing a total area of 4,340 acres. The city's economy is anchored by several key employers, including the Highline School District, Highline College, the City of Des Moines itself, the Federal Aviation Administration's Northwest Mountain Headquarters, and two prominent retirement communities, Wesley and Judson Park.

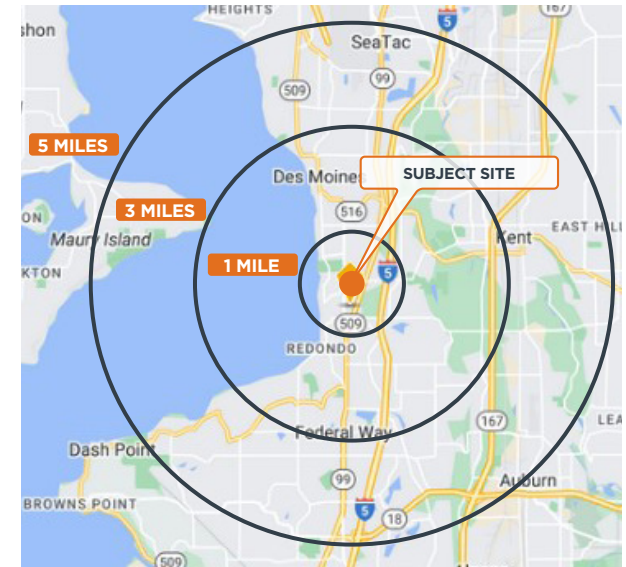

Des Moines offers a charming blend of small-town life and urban convenience. Residents enjoy nearby water-based recreation. The area around 26915 Pacific Highway S features a mix of retail and professional services. While not waterfront, many local neighborhoods provide easy shoreline access. Commuting is aided by the nearby Interstate 5, Highway 509, and less than 1 mile to the Star Lake Light Rail Station opening in 2026. Next to the A-line, route 183 bus routes.

Des Moines balances tranquility with accessibility, appealing to those seeking a community with a mix of residential and commercial amenities.
