MIDTOWN / MUSIC ROW

Midtown Nashville has experienced remarkable growth and transformation over the past five years, attracting a diverse population of young professionals, students, and healthcare workers drawn to its proximity to major hospitals, universities, and downtown Nashville. The area has become a vibrant hub for urban living, with an influx of new developments, including luxury apartments, office spaces, and retail establishments.

Music Row, a cornerstone of Midtown and the heart of Nashville's legendary music industry, infuses the neighborhood with a unique cultural identity. Home to iconic recording studios, publishing houses, and music-related businesses, Music Row has shaped the city's history and continues to influence its future. The area is surrounded by restaurants, bars, and entertainment venues, offering a lively social scene that celebrates Nashville's creative spirit. With its walkability, central location, and proximity to highlights like Centennial Park and Vanderbilt University, Midtown seamlessly blends the energy of Music Row with the conveniences of urban redevelopment, making it a dynamic and evolving destination.

NASHVILLE

The Nashville retail market has taken off, attracting first-in-class, national retailers and restaurant operators who are looking to expand in the Sunbelt markets. Given Nashville's business-friendly practices, the influx of corporations, and the music & entertainment scene, the retail consumer familiar with bespoke retailers & best-in-class restaurants has migrated from primary markets such as Los Angeles, New York, and Chicago. Brands and restaurants with cult followings have paid attention to this migration and are establishing their presence throughout the city's array of emerging urban retail destinations.

National, esteemed restaurateurs and hospitality groups such as Jean-George (Drusie & Darr, The Pink Hermit), Sean Brock (Audrey, Bar Continental, June), Andrew Carmellini (Carne Mare), Starr Restaurants / Keith McNally (Pastis), Boka Restaurant Group (Momotaro), Lettuce Entertain You (Aba, Sushi-San), Castellucci Restaurant Group (Iberian Pig), Ford Fry (Superica, The Optimist, Le Loup, Star Rover), Fox Restaurant Concepts (Pushing Daisies, The Henry), and Indigo Road Hospitality (O-Ku, Oak), have all added Nashville to their roster. Not only has Nashville been the destination for restaurant expansion, but the city has enticed these operators such as New York - based Anthony Scotto (Pelato, Luogo), Tara and Henry Roberts (Two Hands), and John Burns Patterson (Frankies) to relocate their lives to the city.

As Nashville quickly becomes one of the top tourist destinations in the country, an influx of high end hotels including the Four Seasons, St. Regis, Pendry, 1 Hotel, The Edition, and Soho House have identified locations to plant a flag in the market. The luxury retail brands are following suit. Kirna Zabete recently opened in Green Hills, and others are circling neighborhoods like Wedgewood Houston, having identified their customer through their e-commerce channels.

The city's appeal is undeniable, attracting brands such as La Ligne, Sezane, Roark, Aviator Nation, Little Words Project, Love Shack Fancy, Reformation, Jenni Kayne, Hart, and Stoney Clover Lane. Furthermore, and unprecedented for a city of its size, the city is seeing young brands such as Buck Mason, Gorjana, STUDS, Faherty, and Vuori executing on second locations within the urban core showing the strength in sales volumes they are experiencing in their first location in the market. Nashville has a national spotlight, attracting best-in-class Sid & Ann Mashburn and Walt Grace Vintage, but is also home to artisan, local retailers, including Savas, Weiss Watch, and Imogene + Willie, who round out the retail offering and create a unique and dynamic retail environment worthy of putting Nashville on the map.
