The Location

PICO UNION

Historic Los Angeles Neighborhood

Pico-Union is a vibrant neighborhood in Central Los Angeles located just west of Downtown. Known for its historic roots and cultural diversity, the community offers a strong mix of residential and commercial activity with over 40,000 residents in close proximity.

The area benefits from ongoing redevelopment efforts and its strategic location near USC, Koreatown, and the Financial District, making it an attractive destination for both investors and residents.

The neighborhood is bordered by Olympic Boulevard to the north, the Santa Monica (I-10) Freeway to the south, the Harbor (I-110) Freeway to the east, and Hoover Street to the west. This central positioning provides quick access to major employment centers, entertainment districts, and regional transportation corridors.

Regional Economy

The subject property sits between the major jobs centers of Downtown Los Angeles and Culver City. The former, with a daytime population of some 207,000 people, is home to a large concentration of firms from the legal, utilities, accounting and financial services sectors, as well as many federal, state and local government agencies. The latter, on the other hand, has an employer base that skews more creative, with a mix of firms in arts, design, entertainment, sports and media.

LA County

Los Angeles County, officially the County of Los Angeles, is the most populous county in the United States and a dynamic powerhouse within the Los Angeles metropolitan area of Southern California. Home to approximately 9.8 million residents as of 2024—more than the population of 40 individual U.S. states—Los Angeles County stands as the largest non-state government entity in the nation. Its thriving economy generates an impressive nominal GDP of nearly $1 trillion, exceeding the entire economies of countries such as Belgium, Norway, and Taiwan.
