Demographic Data

Situated in one of Ottawa's most established urban neighbourhoods, 46 Carlyle Avenue benefits from a highly educated and professionally diverse resident base supported by strong long term population growth. The property's concentration of large format four-bedroom units is particularly well positioned to serve the surrounding student and shared housing market, with Carleton University located just minutes away.

The area consistently attracts students, young professionals, and urban renters seeking access to transit, major employment nodes, healthcare institutions, and the amenities of the Glebe and Old Ottawa South. Combined with enduring rental demand and limited supply of larger unit formats, the property is well positioned within a mature multi family market characterized by stable occupancy fundamentals and long term tenant appeal.
