PROPERTY SPECIFICATIONS

SPECIFICATIONS

Built in 1910, the subject building is comprised of a total of 5,400 (+/-) square feet. The building offers flexibility to separate the office suites into either two or three office suites, depending on the user needs. The King Street-facing portion of the first floor and the entire second floor can function as an independent space, providing a prestigious and highly visible presence in this vibrant downtown district. Additionally, the building features a separate entrance from the Burke Street parking lot, allowing for another distinct office space with its own access and identity. The space could also be separated into two suites on the first floor and another suite on the second floor. The property features a durable brick exterior and offers excellent visibility in a high-traffic area, making it well-suited for professional or commercial use.

INGRESS / EGRESS / PARKING / DIRECTIONS

The property currently offers one point of ingress and egress along E. Burke Street. Though this property does not provide parking itself there is street and metered parking surrounding the property. Entrance for the metered parking lot is along E. Burke Street. Shown in the photo to the right is an overhead view. Directions to the property are as described; Head north on I-81, take Exit 13, then at the light turn right onto W. King Street/Tuscarora Pike. Continue to follow W. King Street, that will then turn into E. King Street. Turn left onto S. Spring St, then the destination will be on the left.
