MARKET OVERVIEW

Jacksonville, Florida

The greater Jacksonville metropolitan area is home to 1.5 million people and growing. It offers a sophisticated transportation and technology infrastructure and a promising economy. The area's many economic opportunities have attracted young talented professionals; 70% of newcomers were under the age of 40 in 2018. Other advantages of the area are the cost of living, which is below the national average and education – the area is home to Florida's #1 school district.

A variety of industries support Jacksonville's $80 billion economy: Advanced Manufacturing, Advanced Transportation and Logistics, Financial Services, Health and Biosciences and IT, and Innovation. Healthcare accounts for one of every six jobs, with Baptist Health being a major employer in the area. In addition, one of the three Mayo Clinics is located in Jacksonville. It also boasts the third largest military presences in the country with three major naval stations. Lastly, over 80 companies have national or divisional headquarters in the area, such as Florida Blue (BCBS), Wells Fargo and AT&T.

Regarding transportation, three major highways make it easy to get around town: I-75, I-10 and I-95. The latter runs through downtown Jacksonville, and I-295 encircles the city. There are also several U.S. Routes that lead to the downtown: U.S. 17, U.S. 23, U.S. 90, U.S. 10 and U.S. 1.

12th most populous city in the U.S.

6th fastest growing metro in 2018

Over half of new residents are from international locations

Metro unemployment rate of 2.8%
