Site Plan

Property Description

Former Panera Bread 4,146 retail space for lease The property features a Class B retail/office light-industrial finish, with ample storefront glazing and a drive-thru capability—making it adaptable for a wide range of uses. The lot supports generous on-site parking (82 spaces) and benefits from 156 feet of frontage on Meighan Blvd

Finished with concrete parking surfaces, clear access aisles and signage opportunities, the building is tailored for tenant occupancy with high visibility. The layout supports flexible zoning—restaurant, retail service, medical, office or specialty uses. Given the year-built status, systems are modern and efficient, reducing tenant build-out risk and providing more immediate occupancy potential.

Location Description

Situated along Meighan Boulevard—the primary east-west thoroughfare in Gadsden—508 E Meighan Blvd offers highly visible frontage in one of the region's most strategic commercial corridors. The property enjoys direct access to U.S. Highway 431, providing efficient connectivity to downtown Gadsden, Interstate routes and surrounding Alabama communities. The surrounding area features a mix of high-traffic retail, service and office users—ensuring consistent customer and employee exposure.
